NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

DEFEATED AT ALL POINTS.—Dyspepsia may be defined as a disease pronounced unconquerable by generalising theorists, but which Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills always conquer. This is bad for the theorists, but intensely satisfactory to the dyspeptic. The mode in which the cure is effected is simple. Three organs are involved in the disease—the stomach, the liver, and the bowels. The pills act in three ways. They strengthen, cleanse, and regulate—imparting vigor to the digestive functions, and regularity to all three. Their effect is the same in all cases, and they are adapted to all constitutions and climates. In chronic dyspepsia and liver disease the blood is more or less deranged, and therefore in such cases Bristol's Sarsaparilla could be used with the Pills as a blood-curative. cj—ag7

WANTED A BOULEVARD.

If Baron Haussman were asked to pay us a visit, as Mr. Bateman was, the first improvement he would suggest would certainly be, to make a magnificent Boulevard from Plaza Victoria to the Once de Setiembre. The health, convenience and beauty of the city would be equally consulted by a work of this kind, but it is necessarily one of such magnitude that it could only be carried out by Government, national or provincial, and our present object is merely to shew by figures that the outlay would be more than compensated by the value of the frontage on such Boulevard.

For example a law of expropriation could be passed, as in the case of railways, and valuators appointed to assess the amount of indemnity to proprietors and tenants. Make a boulevard 150 feet wide, beginning by knocking down the Policia and Zimmermann Fair's offices, and carrying it straight on to the Plaza Once. There are 26 cuadras, in each of which the area expropriated would be 7,500 square varas, and as most of it is merely the rear of the premises facing on Calles Victoria and Rivadavia we may calculate the value of the ground at 1,000 m|c. per square vara, for the whole distance.

Besides the area requisite for the Boulevard it would be advisable to expropriate 15 varas on each side for shops. In this manner a strip of 80 yards wide and 26 cuadras long represents a total area of 312,000 square varas. The value of the houses to be demolished would be comparatively trifling, including say four houses in each block, with street frontage and the rear of those on Calle Victoria and Rivadavia, in all representing about one-fourth of the value of the grounds. We must also add compensation for tenants, say 5 per cent. of the landlord's interest. Finally, the cost of pulling and clearing the site, and a good round sum for miscellaneous expenses.

The account would stand thus:

312,000 sq. vs. at $f.40 ..	$f.12,480,000
Value of houses.....	3,120,000
Compens. to tenants.....	624,000
Cost of clearing	500,000
Sundries	276,000

As the frontage on the great boulevard would be the most valuable in the city, we shall be rather under than over the mark when we put it down at $f.3000 per vara, and as the street would be 4000 varas long, this would give 8000 varas frontage.

8000 varas front at $f.3000 per vara —$f.25 000,000 would leave a clear gain of seven million fuertes, which could be advantageously expended in the further improvement of the city by buying up, say seven manzanas, in different parts, and turning them into plazas.

Even supposing our estimate of the frontage on the boulevard being too high, you may take off 30 per cent. and still the proceeds will be enough to cover the above estimate of seventeen millions $f., which we have calculated in the most liberal manner.

In this manner B. Ayres would be able to boast a street that might be said to rival Broadway or the Unter den Linden; it would be almost double the width of the grand Calle Diez-y-Ocho of Montevideo, which at present is probably the finest thoroughfare in South America.

It is beside the question to deliberate whether the work belongs properly to the Municipality or the Provincial Government: the former would never be able to carry it out, and as the Government of B. Ayres may be slow to undertake an expenditure of three or four millions sterling an arrangement might be made between Governor Acosta and the National Executive, whereby the latter would take the burden of the task, in return for the hospitality which this city shews to the Federal Government without charging any rent.

If the proposal of the English capitalists made through D. Mariano Billinghurst for city improvements, with a proposed outlay of 5 millions sterling, had been accepted the idea above expressed was to have formed one of the most attractive features.

THE TUCUMAN RAILWAY.

Messrs. Telfener and Co. have published the subjoined remonstrance with respect to the repeated attacks in some of the morning papers upon them, which are calculated to create an unpleasant atmosphere in the upper provinces, and possibly prejudice the advance of the works:

"For some time back repeated attacks have been made upon us which are of a nature to weaken public confidence in us, and may be described as ungrounded calumnies. Hitherto we kept silent, hoping that the Report of the Department of Engineers and that of the Government Inspector, Mr. Dahlquist, would suffice to correct misapprehensions. But now that notorious facts are unavailing in the view of our gratuitous assailants we beg to offer a few remarks to the public, without abandoning such legal remedies as the case may call for.

"It has been said that we have asked the Government for an advance of £100,000 to purchase iron in England, because, owing to the rise in that article no trust is any longer given. This is as much as to say that the contractors have neither money nor credit; and is totally incorrect. We have never asked for any advance of the kind, and are at present shipping 6,000 tons of railway iron in England, of which the National Government has the vouchers.

"It has also been said that we have not yet taken up any land along the route except such as we obtained gratis from Col. Pizarro and others, and that we have not paid a cent to Augusto Lopez for his land adjoining the terminus at Cordoba. Other statements entirely untrue are thrown out to make us appear in a beggarly light, whereas even where people have given us leave to pass over their ground gratis the value of the strip taken for the railway is utterly insignificant. The fact is that we have taken up nearly all the land we require in the province of Cordoba, and can shew the various contracts to anybody that wishes to call to our office, as also the contracts for land over the 4th section, comprising the whole length traversed in the province of Tucuman and a portion of Catamarca.

"It is not true that Col. Pizarro gave his land gratis, nor that Augusto Lopez is unpaid, since we can shew receipts whereby it appears we paid the Colonel $25 per cuadra, and over $9,000 to Augusto Lopez. In like manner we can shew what we paid to Bernardo Gonsalez, Zeferino Ferreyra, Miguel Amuschasteguy and other owners close to Cordoba.

"We are charged with having been in a hurry to mark out levels and claim payment, but not driven a pick into the ground for a stretch of thirty leagues, or taken the least pains to study what works are requisite at Salinas Blancas, where there is no bottom, for ten or twelve leagues, to a depth of 30 or 40 feet; in a word, that we are spiriting away the funds of the nation in a work that we are unable to carry out.

"Suffice it to observe that all our works are made in conformity with our contract, and under the direction of the special Government Inspector. All our works so far have deserved the Inspector's approval, and if anybody suppose there is fraud or complicity in the matter, we shall gladly show him our works, taking him particularly to Salinas, where, instead of a swamp 40 feet deep, he will see a firm embankment that has suffered nothing by the heavy rains of last summer. It is true there were alarming ideas about the Salinas until we made practical surveys which shewed that firm ground could be obtained, which has removed all doubt on the matter. So resolutely have we begun the works in the desert that in some places we convey fresh water four leagues for the workmen, and in others we intend to put up machinery for extracting the salt and rendering the Salinas water fit to drink.

"This we consider sufficient answer to our assailants.

"Telfener & Co."

LAS PIEDRAS CLOTH MILL.

PROVINCE OF SALTA.

Nothing can be more cheering to those who have at heart the progress of industry in the Upper Provinces than to find Argentine capitalists and English engineers combining, as in the case before us, to introduce home manufacture in those places where labor and the raw material abounds, although they have hitherto been undeveloped.

Don Prudencio Palacios is owner of a large property at Rio de Las Piedras, 24 leagues from Salta, the estancia covering an area of nearly 50,000 acres (say 7 square leagues), and situated on the projected line of railway at a point where various Provincial high-roads cross. There being a permanent water-course renders the place suited for agriculture, and the proprietor offers 1,200 acres for colonization, to raise sugar-cane, tobacco, cotton, rice, wheat, maize, vegetables and oranges, all which thrive in the district. Besides a fine orchard of fruit trees the property possesses excellent timber, such as quebracho, guayacan, lapacho, laurel, walnut, cedar, algarrobo, and some others that have barks useful for dyeing. There is also an abundance of stone and lime.

The factory is a building 140 feet long by 27 wide, besides two large storehouses respectively 42 and 35 feet long, with apartments overhead for the employees: also a gallery 60 feet in length. This last is used for stretching the cloth, and as a deposit for dyes. The machinery is moved by a 30-horse turbine, being double the power that is requisite. The whole is under the management of Mr. Thomas Calvert, who resides on the premises with his wife, and is aided by his brother, as also by D. Moses Estrada and a skilful Italian weaver named Giovanni Damillon. Besides the above there are 15 native workmen and 5 women.

At present the factory uses about 40,000 lbs. of wool yearly in blankets, woollen garments, flannel, &c., but it can work up nearly 3 times that quantity. It absorbs also about 1,000 Vicuña skins, say 500 lbs. of vicuña wool, yearly; which is worth 3 Bolivian dollars [say ten shillings] per lb., being used for ponchos, mufflers, shawls, &c., which are in such demand that they are all sold months ahead of their production. There is also a dyeing establishment attached, which gives most satisfactory results.

PARIS LETTER.

(Our Own Correspondent.)

Paris, July 6th, 1873.

Although scarce forty days have elapsed since the fall of M. Thiers his countrymen are beginning already to pick his successor to pieces.

Politics have no bowels of compassion. The chief objection against MacMahon is the perpetual dinning into the ear that he is an honest man. Aristides was so just, too good for human nature's daily food, that he was banished as a nuisance.

M. Thiers has been badly treated, but not by the nation. The combination of antagonistic interests that has overthrown him receives no testimony of gratitude from the people, on the contrary, the latter keep aloof, watchful and reserved. The point of the situation is MacMahon. Can he separate his position from his friends, who are the enemies of the man who saved and liberated France? If his authority, derived from individual excellence, be impaired, there seems to be no other plank of safety at present visible in this country, unless Cincinnatus returns from his plough. Every day more clearly shows that in the coalition the Bonapartists, though few, inspire the 'strong' acts of the Government, as it is also their journals which advocate violent measures against opponents, and the experience of a Coup d'Etat is necessary. Perhaps fortune may favor the bold.

The country has anything but the prospect of marching towards tranquillity. Ministers pipe their best to the nation, but the nation does not dance, rests coy; the cabinet is suspected of clericalism, and its alliance with the Imperialists bodes no good; its legislation promises to be irritating, not soothing. "Good works" could prolong its early doom; free trade, and this much is the only sound point in its charter, but the country remains expecting, not its wise, but its dangerous measures. So long as no tangible assault is made on the Republic, no crisis is imminent, and the young Lady is sufficiently stoical to despise snubs.

Since 23 June 1789, up to 21 May 1870, France has been provided with twelve constitutions, and strange coincidence, neither the first nor the last, which so much resemble one another, had the honor of being tried, but not the less were about as efficacious as those that were.

Paris is making an effort to go to the country, where houses are anything but prepared; few having the courage to look forward to a summer residence there, preferring to do the prolonged winter in the capital. What more melancholy than to read advertisements of charming 'chalets' to let by the sea side, at a period when leaden skies promise to become an institution, and March winds represent zephyrs in the leafy month of July! More persons will retire to a suburban residence, the back part of the house, this season than ever. Equally curious, the provincials show no eagerness to make their periodical pilgrimages to the capital. Yet there is no danger for person or property in Paris since the new government entered in office, no more than there was under the old one. Perhaps all this is owing to martial law or the evident desire of the people to dwell together in unity and peace.

Formerly it took twelve days to go from Paris to Vienna—at least, such was the time set down in the bill in 1870. Now the journey is accomplished in 36 hours; yet this difference does not appear to induce citizens to undertake a trip to the Exhibition. The shops of Paris, however, form a permanent World's Fair. To give a tourist an idea of Vienna prices, it would be well for them to make a stay of a few days in Paris, and experience the pleasure of inflammatory bills; by adding 150 per cent. to the total, Vienna charges can be computed. Cases of sudden death have been reported, on hotel keepers presenting their bills, all smiles and bows, to their customers. No such accident has been reported from the banks of the Danube.

M. Thiers lives for the moment like the mouse in the Dutch cheese. He cannot but feel he has fallen at the right moment. His reputation would certainly have suffered in the hopeless task to carry out his financial ideas, his views on public education, and perhaps an army reform. As he states himself, he wants repose, a little of the arm-chair and port wine existence, among his books, his pictures, his curiosities, and his old acquaintances. It is said that one of his greatest pleasures is the re-perusal of his own newspaper articles on politics, art and history, which he has preserved with a pious care. It was in 1821 he arrived in Paris from Marseilles, with a letter of introduction to the editor of the Constitutionnel, his diploma of barrister at law in one pocket and a criticism on Guizot in the other. Such was his baggage in every sense of the word. He immediately joined the Opposition, and became at once a power by the originality of his talent, the clearness of his style, the abundance of his ideas and the energy of his polemics.

Marshal Bazaine, it is rumored, will be sent to Tours for change of air, pending the commencement of his trial in October. The chances now are that this indictment, of sea-serpent proportions, will never be presented. No person will regret that the 18 Communists lying under sentence of death will not be executed. It would be too great a shock, not so much to the conscience of France as to that of humanity. There were doctors who reported that Rochefort could not support the voyage to New Caledonia; others have stated that he can, and to settle the difference he has received intimation to hold himself in readiness. His daughter will be allowed to accompany him, she paying her own passage. This is all the favor the 'ex-man of the Lanterne' enjoys. The emigration of females to New Caledonia is going on actively.

At the chief lying-in hospital of Paris, the 'Maternite,' the annual number of accouchements is attended by an increase in the number of deaths from puerperal fever: while in 1802 the death-rate was but 1 in 24, and later 1 in 30, it has increased during the last year to 1 in 13, while the accouchements made at the mother's own residence exhibit a mortality ten times less. The municipal authorities are taking steps to prevent the overcrowding of hospitals, and to isolate as much as possible cases of confinement. More lugubrious still is the state of infant mortality. It is shown that 100,000 children given out to nurse die every year, and that since 1820, five millions of such have perished, in addition to four millions of foundlings. Baby farming is very prevalent.

Victor Hugo's new, and to be, his last work is on the point of being issued; its title is "1793", and will touch very strongly on "Civil War". It is whispered that it may be submitted to martial law—suppressed. Indeed the times are very ticklish for political writing either in poetry or prose.

Since Mac Mahon has been raised to his high position, the spirit of the army has very much improved; and that sore point with officers and men—camp life—will be changed. Many officers who were on the point of retiring, have now resolved to remain, and not a few that have requested to be placed on half-pay demand permission to return. It looks as if the army intends to have a voice in the direction of affairs, through its generals understood. However, it is still a mystery what are its political leanings. Rest assured it will ever obey "orders of the day"; will never become dissolute like that of Spain.

A dentist advertises the extraction of a tooth, without pain, for two francs, and with pain, one franc. His clients prefer the latter tariff.

A builder affixed a notice, "the public not allowed to enter here", on a board, beside the deep excavations for a house, which was commented upon by the words, "quite unnecessary".

The waiters of the restaurants sell the cherry stones after dessert, for half a franc the pound; they are broken and boiled to make the liqueur, Kirsch.

THE SHAH IN PARIS.

The Shah of Persia yesterday received the Corps Diplomatique in Paris. According to the Daily News' correspondent:—"The interview was unusually long. The Shah conversed, sometimes in French, sometimes through an interpreter, with all the diplomatists in turn. Of the Nuncio he made many inquiries respecting the Pope's health and mode of life, and said he had already seen a Nuncio at Brussels. To the English Ambassador he reiterated his gratitude for the Queen's reception. He said to the Danish Ambassador that he felt he was already in friendly relations with the Royal Family, though he had not visited Copenhagen, because he had met the Princess of Wales and the Russian Crown Princess. He spoke affably to Prince Orloff. M. Drouyn de Lhuys had a private audience."

A correspondent of the Daily Telegraph thus describes the scene—

Surrounded by all his Ministers and suite, in full-dress uniform, he received his guests in a large apartment immediately opposite the front entrance of the Palais Bourbon. The splendid equipage of the English Ambassador, and the handsome uniform of his footmen—white turned up with black—created a great sensation among the bystanders. Lord Lyons was attended by his secretary, Mr. Sheffield, and two attachés, and all of them were in full diplomatic dress. The Papal Nuncio wore his violet robes, the Austrian Ambassador and his suite were attired in a fanciful light uniform, the Japanese were in dark tail-coats with rich gold lace; and what with these and the Swedes, Spaniards, Turks, and many others, dressed in their several and, for the most part, brilliant uniforms, the group was one singularly full of colour and character. An official interpreter was present at the interview, but the Grand Vizier himself was always at hand to assist in the communications that passed between the Shah and the various Ambassadors. Conversation was kept up with much vivacity, and the interview lasted more than an hour. After receiving the Corps Diplomatique the Shah drove to the Hotel des Invalides, where he visited the tomb of the First Napoleon, and remained for a short time deeply interested. On his return to the palace he and his suite were photographed by Nadar. His Majesty has just received full details of the death of his mother, and his spirits have in consequence been very much depressed.

A grand review takes place to-day in honour of the Shah. It is expected that there will be 80,000 men on the ground. The troops from Versailles and St. Germain were to bivouac last night in the Bois de Boulogne, to spare the men a long march before the review in a burning sun.

The following is the text of the telegraphic message sent by the Shah to Queen Victoria, on his arrival at Cherbourg, as stated in our account of his journey:—

Cherbourg, July 5th.

In announcing to your Majesty my arrival in France, I profit by the occasion to express to your Majesty once more my lively and sincere gratitude for the many acts of kindness shown to me in England. I quit you, my heart filled with satisfaction and admiration for the generous hospitality which your Majesty has displayed towards me with such grace, and of which the recollection will never be effaced from the minds of my people.

NASSR-ED-DIN.

It is stated that the Shah finds it difficult, after his experiences in England, to dispense with direct communication with his capital. He expressed a desire still to have that facility in Paris, and means have been found of meeting his wishes. Last night a wire was to be laid to the Palais Bourbon, and, connected as it will be with England, there, with a wire of the Indo-European line, telegraphic intercourse will be possible through it with Teheran.

The Persian Ambassador at Constantinople has proceeded to Vienna to await there his master's arrival, in order to escort him to the Turkish capital.

The Shah was highly amused at seeing a copy of the Figaro on Monday morning, containing on the front page a long letter in Persian characters. The writing was perfectly correct, but, unfortunately, it had been reproduced by photography, and all the words were inverted. His Majesty and his suite all laughed heartily at this oversight.

A Paris journal says that no less than 3,200 applications for decorations have been made to the Persian Embassy during the last few days.

The Shah on Monday not only went along the Boulevards, but visited the ruins of the Hotel-de-Ville, of the Palais-Royal, Tuileries, and Finance, proceeding also to the Bois de Boulogne and Jardin d'Acclimatation. Galignani says:—

"The party, in the last-mentioned place, visited the grand conservatory, where the ratest plants of Asia, Africa, and America are collected, and the Persian monarch testified his admiration of the beautiful sight that met his eye. The aviary was next proceeded to, and there the Shah, seeing a pretty rosy child standing near her mother, took the little girl in his arms and kissed her. The aquarium was a source of great interest to the whole Persian party, and the large kangaroos quite surprised the Royal visitor. The two ostriches in harness, and the pair of elephants, on the back of which a marriage party were then taking exercise, also much amused the Shah, who saluted the bride with more than usual ceremony. His Majesty stopped for a moment before the dwarf ponies and the Bactrian camels, and then took his departure. The whole party next went through the Bois, and the Shah crossed the great lake in a boat, and afterwards returned by the Avenue de l'Impératrice, the Champs-Elysées, and the Pont des Invalides to the Palais-Bourbon. His Majesty dined at half-past seven on lamb and fowl, and drank some champagne. Later in the evening he again drove out with the Marquis d'Abzac, Aide-de-Camp of Marshal de MacMahon, and went through the galleries of the Opera and walked for some time on the Boulevard, returning home at a little after eleven. The Persian flag floats over the Palais Bourbon, but the green border is of a much deeper colour than exhibited in the banners used on Sunday—in fact, it is quite dark.

"The Petit-Bourbon Palace, which is at present inhabited by the Shah, says Galignani, dates from the commencement of the eighteenth century. It was built for the Seigneur de Lorsey, and was situated in the midst of some waste ground, bordered on one side by the Ile des Cygnes, and on the other by the Pré-au-Clercs. When the Duchess Dowager de Bourbon had built, in 1722, the present Palace of the Legislative Body, the Prince de Condé, her grandson, purchased the estate comprising the Hotel Lorsey, now comprised between the quay and the Rue de Bourgogne. From that moment the last-named residence was incorporated with the Hotel Bourbon, and called the Petit-Bourbon. The style is that of that Renaissance, but the facade is somewhat disfigured by the addition of another storey."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Royal Mail steamer Douro arrived at Montevideo yesterday morning. Her dates having been anticipated by the magisterial run out of the Corcovado, she brings no fresh news, but her letters, which will be up this morning, will be acceptable. The Douro will leave for home on the 14th inst—this day week.

The weather changed suddenly during Tuesday night, and yesterday morning's temperature had a strong touch of the South Pole about it, with a whole gale of wind blowing. The thermometer tumbled to 50 Fahr, and 'the glass' is going hard towards 'Very Dry'—a cheerful look-out for the parched up camp. The wind caused things in port to rule stiff, and small craft had a hard time of it, while the anchor chains of the 'big uns were kept pretty taut.

A lamentable accident occurred on board the steamer Capitan during her last run down the river. In the middle of the night while she was at full speed on her course, a heavy splash was heard, and cries of 'man overboard!' soon aroused the passengers. The steamer was stopped and boats lowered, but no trace of the missing man could be found. He was a passenger and had deliberately thrown himself overboard, why or wherefore is not known.

Some valuable plants were stolen from an uninhabited quinta near the railway station at Flores, on Tuesday night. The gardener in charge, hearing a noise, got out of bed, seized his loaded gun, and discharged it at a dark object tumbling over the fence. A considerable howl led the gardener to believe that the thief's trousers were damaged by his No. 4, but nothing has since been heard of the midnight marauder.

We had a 'wire' yesterday from Mercedes stating that the races there on Tuesday had passed off in a tip-top fashion—splendid sport, fine weather and lots of fun, fellowship and fine feeding. We expect ample details of the event to-morrow.

To-morrow week, Lady Day, will be a strict holiday. There will be a Foot-Ball match at Palermo.

The opera of Favorita had to be postponed at the Colon Theatre on Tuesday evening in consequence of the indisposition of Madame Pozzoni. We regret to hear that this gifted lady is suffering from the very severe work she has gone through since the opera season opened; she has certainly had her share of it. There should be a second 'prima donna absoluta,' to give Madame Pazzoni a chance of a week's rest now and then.

We remind the directors and members of the Saint Patrick's Society that the twentieth meeting of the association comes off this evening (W.W.P.)

The best thing out is a conflagration.

An expensive wife makes a pensive husband.

False friends are like our shadows; they follow us only in sunshine.

The great local event in San Juan last month was of a matrimonial kind. On the glorious 9th Mr Pressinger, Rector of the National College at Mendoza, led the lovely and accomplished Miss Laprida to the altar of Hymen. The fair bride is a grand daughter of the late Dr. Laprida, who was President of the Congress that declared Argentine Independrnce. We beg to offer the happy couple our congratulations, wishing them a long life and a merry one, and lots of STANDARD luck.

Among the passengers going home this time per Douro are some gentlemen who mean to go to the Vienna Exhibition, including Mr. Emilio Fernandez, of Montevideo; Mr. Carlos Sanchez, of Valparaiso; and, we beliexe, Mr. Iglesias, of London. We are indebted to Mr. Sanchez for the pictures of Chile, which are causing such a furore, drawing numerous visitors daily to our office.

A facetious barraquero describes the difference between society in the metropolis and that in a provincial town in the following language:—'In the country, if you have a boiled leg of mutton for dinner, everybody wishes to know whether you have caper sauce with it; whereas in Buenos Ayres you may have an elephant for lunch, and no one cares a pin about it.'

We publish in another column the manly straightforward answer of Messrs Telfener and Co, 'empresarios' of the Cordoba and Tucuman Railway Company, to the baseless attacks made on them for some time past by a section of the metropolitan and provincial Press. A more complete demolition of adversaries we have never read, and conclude that the slanderers of the "empresa" must feel proportionately foolish this fine August morning.

Congress has thrown out the proposal for establishing. Vote by Ballot, 'Tant pis' for Congress and the country. The existing system leaves the door open to all sorts of abuses and electoral scrimmages and disputes; but if the representatives of the nation prefer these to a quiet life on election days, it is not our province to object, as we have no votes, and cherish a chronic objection to electioneering in any shape or form.

The expedition of Sir Samuel Baker to Africa has led to the important discovery that Lakes Albert Nyanza and Tanganyika are identical. Sir Sam had terrific difficulties to overcome. One of the nigger kings, Kabriki, sent him and his party a present of 'ceryeza del pais' well poisoned, and went within an inch of 'doing' for the whole expedition. Antidotes saved them, and Kabriki, with 10,000 lances, then attacked the 100 Egyptian troops with the 'Nazarene,' as the black tribes call Sir Samuel. He fell back on a friendly tribe—Rewinka's—which joined him and chawed up Kabriki, taking possession of the whole territory. The lakes referred to as identical discovered a magnificent inland sea 700 miles long. Mr. Higginbotham, chief engineer of the expedition, has died. Sir Sam is now styled the Emancipator of Central Africa, and has replaced the Shah in the Cockney mind. Every one is now asking where Africa is, and geographies have risen 50 per cent. in price.

"A jolly night.—In the diary of Sir George Jackson, the late diplomatist, it is mentioned that the Prince Regent, afterwards George IV., being dull one night and wanting some variety, sent his carriage to the King's Bench for George Colman, the dramatist, who was confined there for debt, to come and make sport and amuse him. They sat up till six in the morning, when his Royal Highness was carried to bed."

There was a splendid feed 'à la fourchette' given on board the steamer Edward Everett when last in Asuncion. It was given by the agent and proprietor of the vessel to the Argentine and Brazilian Ministers, and all the 'swells,' Ministers, Consuls and well known people in Asuncion were invited. General Mitre, Baron Aragua, Miranda and other gentlemen made eloquent speeches, and several other guests tried to do likewise. Liberty, equality, fraternity and good cheer reigned supreme, and all declared the blow-out to be the most brilliant known in Asuncion for some time.

The Tucuman papers report it is almost impossible to make papas and mammas up there send their olive branches to school, although a recent act of the Legislature renders education compulsory. In one town alone the fines levied on parents for breaking this law amounted to 700 pats. in July. There is no news from any of the other distant provinces.

In Mercedes, B. O., lately, some numskulls who could not induce a loaded blunderbuss of the old school to go off, hit on the happy expedient of sticking it into the kitchen fire, where they left it pointing towards the door. An unfortunate boy who had just returned from rounding his sheep, not knowing what was going on, entered the kitchen in search of something. He had scarcely entered the kitchen when the old gun went off and made a sieve of him, and an old lady who was sick in the house jumped out of bed with fright and died next day. A nice result of a stupid trick.

Any subscribers who rear cocks and hens may find the following hint useful in case of their birds being indisposed—

"From one to ten boxes of pills is a dose for young fowls. The best way to give the remedy is to tickle the chicken under the wings until it laughs, when it can be shot down its throat with a musket or horse-pistol."

Mr. Valentine Balbin C. E. has made a large contract in England for ironwork for the new prison, which will be sent out as soon as possible.

New newspapers every day, but less news than ever. Excepting the bare wording of the leaders, for the subjects are identical with all, every journal in town is now brimful of the same thing. Nothing. Even the scraps of news given here and there are flavoured with Electioneering. Some papers hitherto having a little news every day have now taken to the scissors and furious electioneering. It 's awful for those who have to read every paper in town every day in the week; and we heartily wish the Bus would smash up, and put a stop to the whole concern. An earthquake would be still better, but there is no chance of such relief this side of the Andes.

The intelligence in the Cordoba papers to hand yesterday is mainly in reference to the births of boys and girls during July, how many people went to church the day before, and how the Chambers did not meet on the previous night. The only enlivening intelligence is about a guard on a Catamarca diligence who nearly blew himself inside out by incautiously handling his blunderbuss. The Bishop is out of all danger.

Small pox is disappearing from Santa Fe after sending a fair number of persons to the next world. The measles have broken out in its stead, and children are going to Limbo by the dozen.

There was a military review at Rosario on Sunday in which two pieces of artillery of the year One figured. The want of experience of the gunners produced an accident, one of the artillery men losing his punch hand by the premature discharge of the gun he was ramming home at the moment, while a too inquisitive urchin looking on was knocked kicking by the wadding striking him under the dexter ear.

The Police had a tremendous chase after two escaped lunatics on Monday. The unfortunate beings were recaptured after a run that completely exhausted the 'puff' of the pursuing 'blues.'

Bills are now before Congress to authorise a grant of 10,000 pats. to Santiago del Estero for hydraulic works, and to establish a National Model Farm in the Province of Santa Fe.

General Ferreira, who commanded the National army in the field against Caballero, an idea of which our Asuncion correspondent gave us yesterday, has issued an order of the day to his victorious legions that would do honor to Bombastes Furioso. It is however too rich for publication this poor weather, and we let it slide.

The war correspondent of La Prensa gives details of the recent sally from Parana, under the Minister of War, to 'surprise' the Jordanites. The troops were marched six leagues under a broiling sun, and barely saw the enemy. Five soldiers died from fatigue and the whole force marched back again the next day with 800 head of cattle and sheep taken from neighboring estancias. The King of France could do no better or worse than this exploit. Parana is swarming with Jordan's spies who impart all kinds of false news to the Nationals for a consideration.

The Italo Platense's mails announce the spread of Cholera in Austria, Poland, Hungary and Italy. The disease is running along the Mediterranean coast! Hear this Mr. Port Captain, and keep your weather eye open! If not, there 'll be 'Old Harry' in Buenos Ayres before very long.

How to make one's self obnoxious—To walk down a crowded thoroughfare carrying a ladder on your shoulder, and to turn round every other minute to see if any one is looking at you!

A widow lady, who is engaged to a bachelor neighbour that owns a large farm and comfortable dwelling, says she loves the very ground he walks upon, and adores the house he lives in. That is something like true love.

Town Councillor Torres, of the Socorro ward, has resigned his seat in the Corporation.

A kind and constant reader favored us yesterday with a lot of mouldy conundrums and would-be 'bon mots,' every one of which we were forced to consign to the waste paper basket, with the exception of the following; the 'dramatis personæ' are supposed to be a lot of pious females and 'nice young men' assembled at a tea meeting and diverting their innocent minds by 'conundruming' for a silver tea service; the 'con' that won came from one of the females, and ran:—"Why is the writer of this conundrum like a domestic servant out of place?" "Because she wants to get a service, and is willing to carry off the tea-things."

Another football match is advertised for the 15th August no particular sides being fixed by the Committee, but the majority of the players are in favor of a repetition of the former struggle—England versus "the World's and we think that as this has been the most satisfactory match ever played here, it may as well be arranged for it to come off. All the members are eager for it and intend keeping a good look-out for the man with the pipe.

National Bonds	79½

The Provincial Bank discounted to-day seventeen millions two hundred thousand dollars m/c. yet m ney rules as tight as ever; and spite of the stringency in the money market Bonds ran up to-day 1½ per cent. It was said on 'Change that orders from England have come out. The rise in this stock is not due to any effort on the part of the bulls, for money is so tight that the bulls are powerless, but the stock is so held up that unlike Cedulas very little is offered in the market. Cedulas fell off to-day and closed weak, but in the liquidation prices on time at once stiffened.

The sales were as follows:—

It was currently rumoured on 'Change to-day that another failure, and in the barraquero line, had occurred in Montevideo.

Mr. Dry Hide Martinez held the ante-chamber of the Bolsa to-day, having placed there a tanned River Plate cow hide which he had received from New York, and which was sent to Buenos Ayres to show the injury the hide receives from the cuts given and slovenly way in which the animal is skinned. Mr. Martinez merits the thanks of the market for getting this tanned hide from the States.

The telegram from Montevideo gave—

An American barraquero announced on 'Change that the Douro has brought news of wools down 10 cts. As the Corcovado's news is later, the statement carried with it less weight than amusement.

In the North market to day 7000 sheepskins sold at 28½ to 28½; maize at 56, and in grain at 44.

There was not much done in the Plazas to day. buyers stand back, waiting for their letters per Douro. Still the market looks well, although business this morning was a shade flatter. Some few sales at yesterday's quotations.

Discount brokers report money dear, and rates without any change.

It appears that a gigantic speculation has begun in Montevidean Home Debt—over two millions sold to day. The total issue is but four millions. It is thought that prices will be driven up to 65.

No steamer to-day from Montevideo, and nothing save a few short telegrams from there whilst the public curiosity to hear from that market is whetted to a keen edge by the news that millions of the home debt are bought and sold, speculation in that stock being now far greater than in cedulas here. Furthermore, there is a rumour that another almacenero firm down there has failed; we suppose the full particulars will be up in the morning.

The news from Parana is favourable, and further particulars of the last engagement have come down. The government army, it seems, is at last on the move, and it is to be hoped that soon there will be a wind up of the revolution, which so much interferes with business, and chocks everything save the proveduria trade.

The news from Asuncion is better; everything is quiet there now, and money far easier than in Buenos Ayres. The Brazilian artillery have moved out of the city, and taken up quarters outside the town; in some branches of trade there is a good movement.

Mr. Julius Haase has bought at auction the German barque Hade. We suppose, for the guano trade.

Already the auction season of suburban lands has opened. We think it premature with money at 15 and 18. Property holders would consult their own interests better by standing back for a while. A small piece of ground in the suburbs of Belgrano, 26x75, has been just sold for 70,000 m/c.; Sr. Uriburu, buyer. A very fine house in Calle Suipacha, No. 339, belonging to the estate of the late William Daws is now offered for sale; the 3rds valuation amount to 69.238.

At Cañuelas M. D portal, former Governor of Entre Rios, is building a magnificent residence where he purposes also establishing a Cabaña. Mr. Granel in Congress has introduced a bill for the creation of a model farm in Santa Fe, and asks for a vote of 200,000 pats. to support it; the farm to be started at the Guadalupe colony in Santa Fe.

The Douro entered Montevideo this morning, and her mails may be looked for to-morrow. It was said on 'Change that she brings no gold.

The announcement in the STANDARD this morning that the National Bank would not open until October 1st caused some discussion, as most of the brokers insist that the Bank will open on September 1st. We have no official notification on the subject, but as the third call on the shares is only payable on the 20th September, it is reasonable to suppose that the Bank will not open until after the payment of the third call. Immense attention is now paid in this market to the opening of this new bank, as the impression is general that it will tend greatly to ease the money market—beginning with at least six millions fresh money, and holding the Custom-house business; it will doubtless be in a position to discount very freely, and good mercantile paper that now is done with difficulty at 12 and 15 per cent. will at once find its way to the new bank at 10 per cent. per annum. The directors are men of great experience in the market and capital judges of paper. The new Nat. 6 per cent Bonds given by the Government in payment of its shares will, we hear, be deposited in England as a guarantee for any exchange transactions which it may suit the bank to enter into. The shares are now readily bought at 95, but they might also be quoted at par, the difference of 5 per cent on the deposit money being so trifling, and it is the general belief that on the allotment and opening of the bank these shares will at once run up to 10 prem. All the bank offices for the present will be upstairs; rather a novelty in its way; but this could not be helped owing to the ex-tenants below refusing to leave on such short notice.

A Manchester subscriber has favored us with the following return from the Board of Trade just out. The figures showing the English dry goods trade with this country as compared with others are important—

From the foregoing it will be seen that the Manchester piece good trade with the Argentine Republic is greater than with Australia.

The following decision in the Lizardi case is important—

"Court of Bankruptcy, June 28th.

("Before the Hon. W. C. Spring-Rice, as Chief Judge.)

In Re I. T de Lizardi.

"This case came before the Court, under the following circumstances:—In December, 1872, Messrs. Etchebarne and Casonave, of Rio de Janeiro, entered into a speculation with the bankrupt for the purchase of 3,005 sacks of coffee on joint account. The coffee was consigned to Lizardi, and was intrusted by him to brokers for realizing. He received £14,000 from the brokers on account, but, instead of applying the money in payment of an acceptance which he had given for the amount, he used it for other purposes, and shortly afterwards absconded. The result was that Messrs Etchebarne and Casenave had been called upon to pay the £14,000, and their present claim of £763 3s 4d. was in respect of the balance of the proceeds of the coffee which had been received by the trustee of the bankrupt's estate from the brokers since the failure.

"Mr. Michael Abrahams appeared in support of the claim; Mr. Hunter for the trustee.

"His Honour thought that Messrs Etchebarne and Casenave were entitled to receive the sum of £763 3s. 4d., and made an order accordingly."

"The annexed statement shows the exports of coal during the month of June, 1873, and six months ended June 30th, 1872 and 1873—

The London papers of the 11th July give the following—

"There was an enormous amount of unemployed capital at the Stock Exchange, and short loans on Consols were offered from 3 to 3½ per cent.

"The recent decline in coffee is working its effect. The failure of a broker of long standing, and much respected has been announced, who had large accounts to take of parties who recently stopped payment. It is understood that the deficiencies in this case will be exceedingly heavy.

"Paraguay Bonds were dull. They continue to come to market, and the Old Eight per Cents marked 25½, 46½, 44, and left off 44½ to 45½, or a decline of 1. The Eight per Cents of 1872 obtained 42½, 43, ending the day 40 to 42.

We hear from the Banda Oriental that all the earthworks and bridges on the centre length of the Central Uruguay Railway to Durazno are expected to be completed by the end of the present month, leaving nothing but the rails to be laid, in order to admit of the opening of the line to this important town in the centre of the Republic. Three new locomotives have arrived in Montevideo to Messrs. Waring Bros, for the above railway, the material trains upon which now run to a considerable distance beyond Florida.

New Patent R.R. Grease

YELLOW GREASE

Manufactured and Patented by
RICHARD GAMBLE.

Suitable only for this Climate
Not for Europe.

It is manufactured to suit Summer, Winter and Spring, and is only used for Railways, Tramways and Carts, Bullock Waggons, &c.

It consists of Nine different fluid oils and solidified by a chemical process. It will resist the hottest sun, and will not get into a liquid or fluid state. It is only when the action of the axles commences it becomes a rich creamy fluid, and when the action stops its again solidifies.

It is of a suitable consistency, of good lasting power, attended with but little increase of temperature even at the highest speeds, and leaves but the smallest residue in the axle boxes. A grease which is too firm will remain comparatively solid in the box, and allow the axle to become hot, whilst on the other hand one that is too thin becomes exhausted by a few miles running.

This Grease is of more importance than at first sight appears; for while the grease account of railway companies forms no inconsiderable item of expenditure, the waste of motive power and wear and tear of plant entailed by the use of unsuitable grease is enormous.

The merits of the Grease, in its general utility as a
and also for its
are shewn, when compared with other kinds hitherto used, that are entirely useless for any purpose but that of lubrication.

It is therefore much less liable to be pilfered and misapplied than tallow, lard, neatsfoot oil, potro oil, rape oil or gallipole oil.

These oils always command a ready market if pilfered, a circumstance which induced the principal railway companies in England to adopt Yellow Grease for their protection and manufacture to suit European climate.

VINGS BANK

BANK MAUA AND C O.

101--Calle Cangallo--103

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense savantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maná & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very lrge amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing the oselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other ai solities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the example of their firm in Montevideo, he same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Maná & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wish can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

Bristol's sarsaparilla

Is prepared in the most scientific manner, by thoroughly educated chemists and Druggists, who have had many years' experience. It is not a simple extract from one article, but is compounded of extracts from a number of Roots, Herbs Barks, and Leaves, all of which are possessed of some particular virtue or power in curing the diseases that have their source in the blood and humors; these different vegetable extracts are combined in such a way as to retain, in so full strength, the special curative virtue possessed by each. The root of the Sarsaparilla plants found in Honduras, is that which we use in this preparation; it is the kind which all medical men esteem most. About fifty per cent. of Bristol's Sarsaparilla consists of the concentrated extract, the remainder, as above stated being composed of extracts from other powerful, cleansing and healing vehetable substances. It does not contain any thing that is dagerous or injurious to health, and in this, as in nearly every other respect, is entirely different from all other preparations sold under the name of Sarsaparilla.

By having our own agents at he places where the various roots, drugs, herbs and plants, composing our medicines, are produced, we are enabled to exercise that constant care in selection which insures uninformity of excellence, and we spare no money and no effort to procure the best—and only the best—of every article entering into their composition; and it is with the most abiding confidence we say, to be sick of all nations and all countries, that, in Bristol's Sarsaparilla you have a remedy more reliable than any before offered to you, and which will no disappoint ayou in the cure of.

Salt Rheum. Tetter. Scald Head.
Syphilis, or Veneral Disease.
Nervous and General Debility,
Old Sores, Ulcers, Tumors,
Abscesses, Boils, Eruptions
Scrofula or King's Evil,
Female Derangements,
White Swellings,
Fever and Ague,
Chills and Fever.
& Dumb Ague.

As a means of building up the constitution that has been broken down by the excessive use of Mercury, Iron, or other Minerals, our Sarsaparilla will be found most excellent, and can be administered with safety to the weakest patients. As a purifier of the blood and humors, in the Spring and early Summer, it will the found unfailing. It can be taken freely at seasons, rainy or dry. For some of the above diseases, the use of the Sarsaparilla must be continued a considerable time, especially for those that are hereditary or constitutional in their nature—such as Scrofula: but a faithful compliance with the directions will always relieve and mitigate, and in a great majority of cases will effect a complete cure. It will also be found, in all of the above diseases, that a cure will be greatly hasted by using our Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, in moderate does, in connection with the Sarsaparilla; they carry off large quantities of morbific or diseased matter set free in the system by the Sarsaparilla, and in this way facilitate the return to mal fnuctional operations —cj— 46

THE MOST

Important Auction

OF THE YEAR,

BY

Benjamin Nazar & Co.

No. 154 CALLE VICTORIA.

27th & 28th August, 1873.

130 Magnificent Improved Rambouillet Rams, especially bred and modified, by selection in Breeding, to suit the country, by Wilfrid Latham, of the Cabaña de los Alamos.

These Rams, so well known to Breeders, are yearly rising in their estimation, by reason of their especial qualities of suitableness to the requirements of Flockmasters, and to the conditions of soil, climate, and pastures of the country.

A large proportion of these Rams surpass in all those qualities which are desiderata for the River Plate Breeders, the best Rams of the Cabaña Imperial of Rambouillet, as may be judged by a comparison with the best imported either this year or last.

With admirable fattening form, trueness of shape and unequalled hardiness, most of them combine a length and fulness of staple, of fine, undulating, coming character of wool, not to be approached by any other Merino Sheep here or in Europe. Others again are somewhat finer in staple, of singular brightness and strength, and particularly close.

These different degrees in the length and fulness of the staple in the different sheep have been specially produced, under select breeding, to harmonise with the different qualities of soil and herbage in various districts of the camps.

The importance of this breed, with its exceptional qualities, is easily comprehended, through a reference to European markets, where the long, full, and bright stapled merino wools command the ready sale at the highest prices, while the short weak wools are a comparative drug.

The Rams offered for sale are 15 to 16 months old, with wool corresponding to that age. Also there will be included in the lot a few select two year old Rams, with ten months wool on.

The whole will be on view at the Auction Mart of Messrs. B. Nazar and Co., 154 Calle Victoria, for three or four days previous to the Auction. cj—230 1m jy24
